During the afternoon of October 21, 1977, a radiant Autumn day, SRP visited the Maplewood Cemetery and noted:

The disposition of the stones in the Russell plot in the Maplewood Cemetery is as follows:

(West)

		J.L.S.	J.L.	C.A.R.	J.L.R.
		(large granite marker)
N.L.R.	J.M.R.	J.M.R.	C.A.R.	MOTHER	FATHER

The East face of the large granite marker in the center of the plot bears the following inscription:

"James A. Russell, 1814-1872
His Wife
Margaret Locke, 1831-1905"

The West face of the large granite marker in the center of the plot bears the following inscription:

"Russell Children

Christina A. 1857-1864
Jennette L. 1859-1864
Christna A. 1864-1881
John M. 1851-1884
Jane M. 1868-1954
Nettie L. 1866-1963"

"Jennette Locke
1799-1872

Jennette Locke Scott
1837-1868"
